ONE-HIT WONDERS

We had 19 one-hitters thrown this season, in addition to the eight no-hitters. All were winning efforts, and 15 of them were shutouts. Sixteeen were broken up by a single, two by a double and one by a triple.
Bradenton pitchers threw 3 of them and Buckeye hitters suffered 3 others, not quite as bad as the 4 times that Mexicali was 1-hit.
Patsy Dougherty broke up 2 of those 1-hitters for the Mallards – the only hitter to do it twice this year.

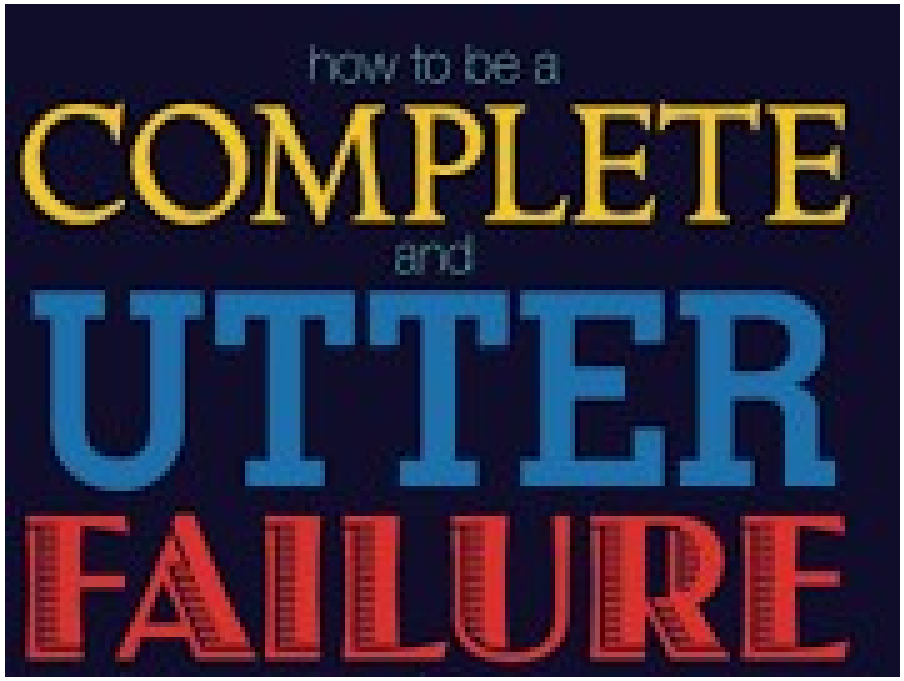
ERROR

Fifteen times this season, a team made six or more errors in one game, but none made more than Turin on April 14. In a 9-0 loss to Pittsburgh, the Mountaineers committed nine charged errors on the 2nd day of the season, in front of the home town fans. They also were charged with one passed ball and one hit batter.
It took a team effort, as six different players were charged with errors – plus the catcher's passed ball and the pitcher's hit batsman – making it 8 conspirators.



FUMBLE FINGERS

Three times a player committed four errors in one game:

May 25 – Shortstop George Davis for Buffalo

May 26 – Second baseman Harry Hinchman for Hyde Park

September 21 – Second baseman, player-manager Lefty Meade for Bergen

Double Play

Two teams turned five double plays in one game this year.
Hyde Park did it against South Starrucca on September 19 in a 12-innings
South Starrucca did it in Buffalo in regulation on June 2. Shortstop Phil Lewis and first baseman Tom Jones participated in each one.
