A stylized graphic of a flame or fire rising from the number 9. The flame is composed of several jagged, upward-pointing shapes in shades of red, orange, and yellow, with a bright yellow tip. The numbers 1, 9, 1, and 0 are rendered in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The number 9 is the largest and is positioned centrally, with the flame rising from its top. The numbers 1, 1, and 0 are smaller and positioned to the left, right, and right of the 9, respectively.

PETERS POSTS TOP E.R.A. IN A.L.

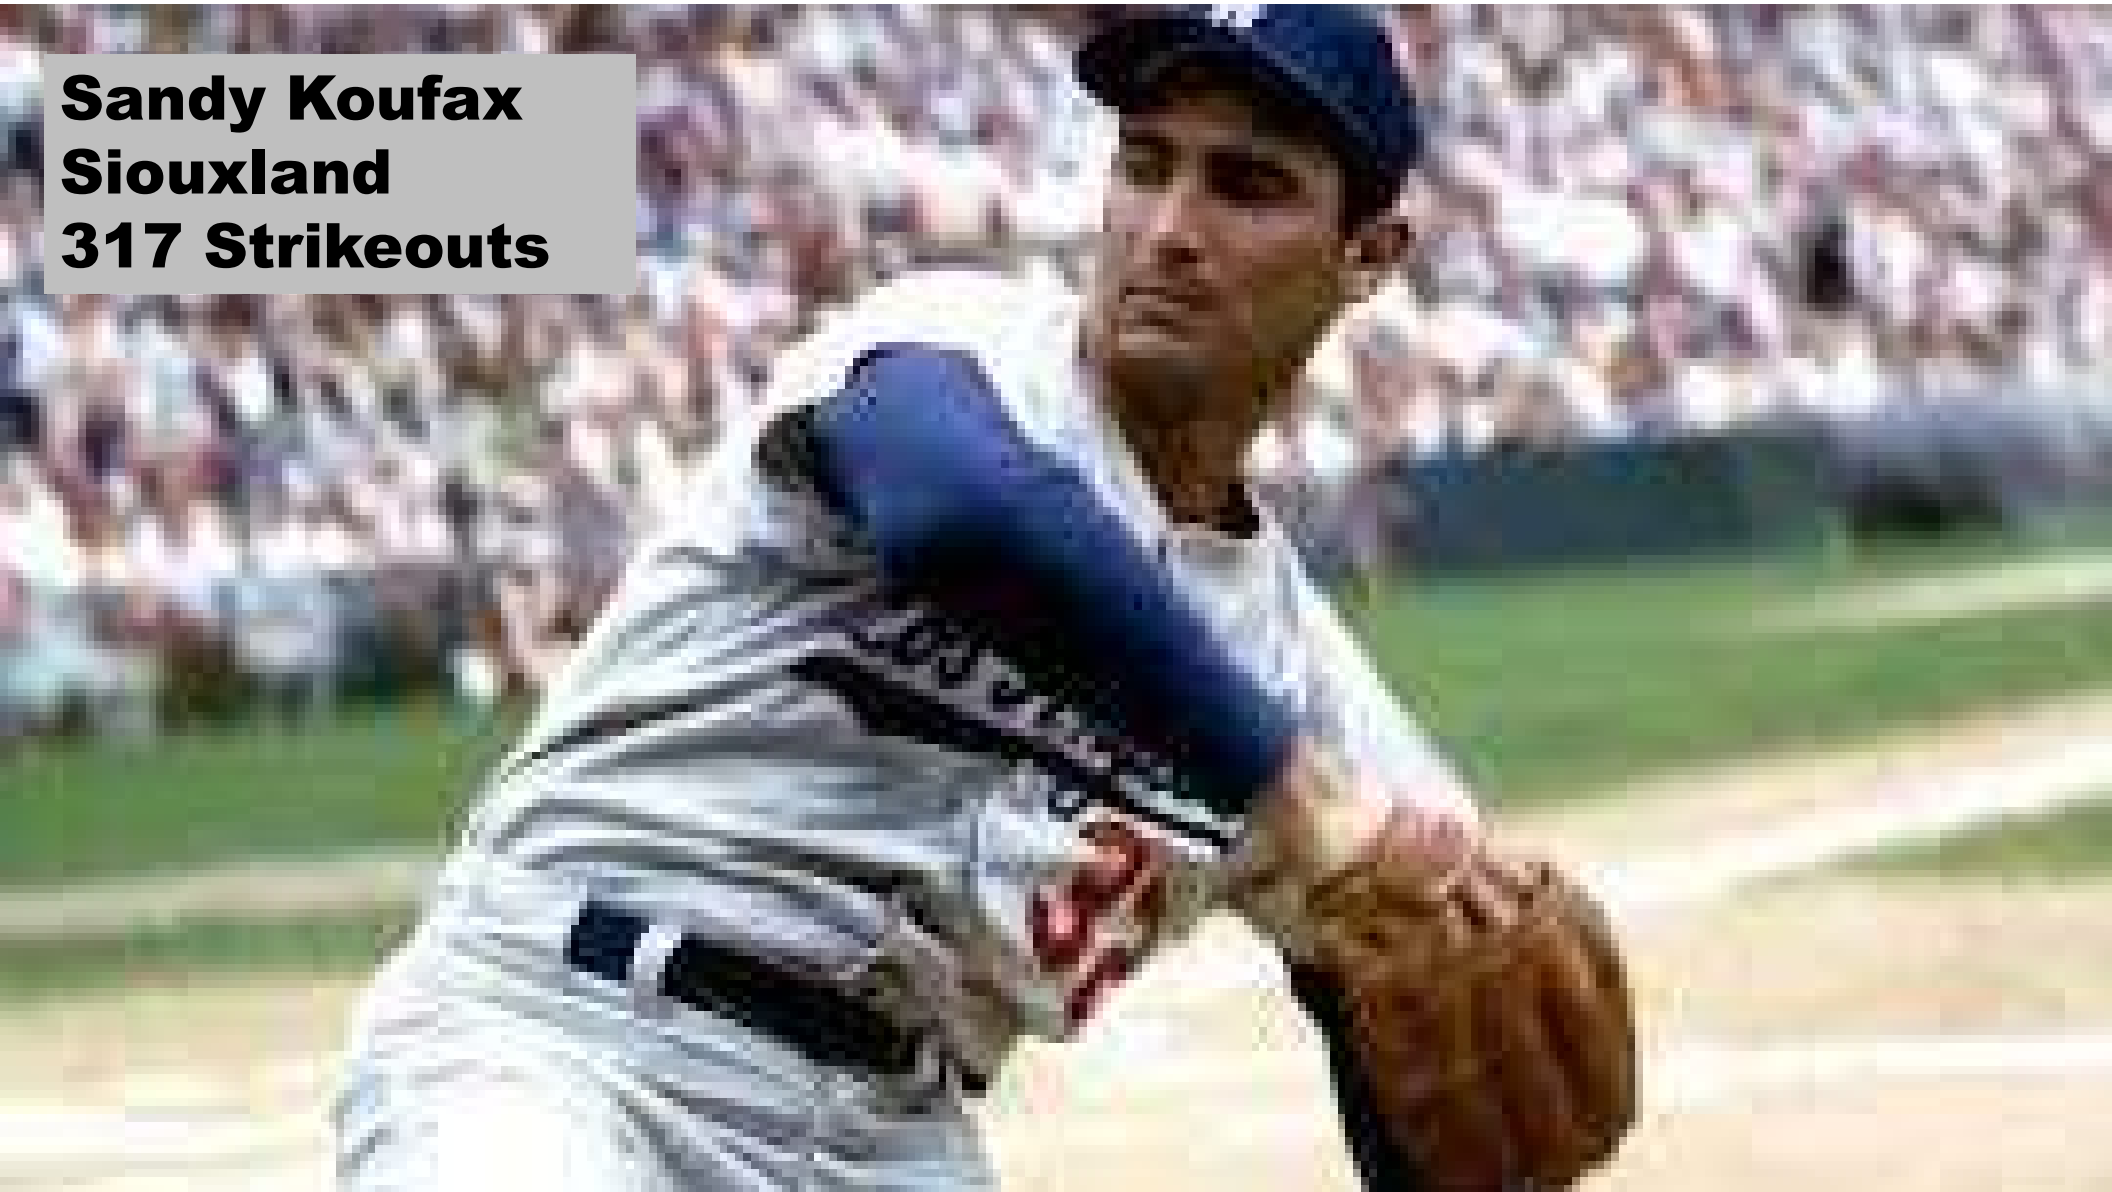

Rockie lefthander of the Chicago White Sox. Gary Peters posted a microscopic 2.33 earned run average in 1963 to lead the American League. By becoming the E.R.A. champ in his first complete season, he tied a major league record. Gary won 19 ballgames in 1963 and at one point reeled off eleven

The image features the year '1983' in a large, bold, red serif font with a dark blue outline. The numbers are decorated with white floral motifs. A small flower is positioned at the base of the '1', another between the '9' and '8', a third between the '8' and '3', and a fourth at the base of the '3'. The floral designs consist of a central flower with five petals and a curved stem with two leaves.
